Facts

- Surpassing Łucka City it will become Poland's tallest residential tower. Additionally, surpassing Turning Torso by just 2 meters the building will be Europe's second tallest all-residential skyscraper, its height being exceeded only by that of Triumph-Palace in Moscow.
- This high-rise residential development, will replace the City Center purchased recently by Orco Property Group and will at the same time house the most prominently located high-rise apartments in the city center.
- The tower will complement the west, tall frontage of Emilli Plater Street formed presently by InterContinental Warszawa, Warsaw Financial Center and the soon-to-be-completed Golden Terraces.
