Facts

- "Legends" and "Smokestack" are logos being used to recognize Kansas City, Kansas' early history as an industrial center of meat-packing, auto manufacturing, soap making, and railroading in the Midwest USA.
- This structure is a monument to that legacy and identifies the main entrance to the 805,000 square Legends restaurant, shopping and retail area.
- The round, 20-foot wide monument will have the letters "Legends" vertically on three sides of the brick structure, with a time and temperature board and a message center at ground level. Landscaping includes prairie grasses and other typical Midwest vegetation.
